O R D E R :

Heard the learned counsel.

The writ petition is filed to issue an order or writ or direction one in the nature of writ of Certiorari to set aside the order vide ROC.No.4517/2004-A1 (P) of the first respondent dated 23-5-2006 by calling for the records and pass suitable orders.

The main grievance of the writ petitioner is that there was no independent application of mind to the District Collector and hence the condition specified under section 249 of the A.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1994 had not been complied with. It is needless to say that as against the impugned order the petitioner is entitled to file a revision before the Government under section 264 of the A.P. Panchayat Raj Act, 1994.

In view of the same, the petitioner is at liberty to file revision before the Government and the Government after entertaining the same shall dispose of the revision within a period of four weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of the order.

With the above direction, the writ petition is disposed of at the admission stage. No order as to costs.

JUNE 23rd, 2006.
